

FROM THE HIGHEST COURT

Dr. Greene's Nervura Endorsed by Congressman and Ex-Judge Powers.

For the benefit of those who need an honest and helpful medicine, Congressman and Ex-Judge Powers has made a statement concerning Dr. Greene's Nervura.

The Hon. H. Henry Powers, of Morrisville, Vt. is one of our greatest statesmen. For sixteen years he was judge of the Supreme Court, and since taking his seat in Congress he has been conspicuous on important committees. He has also been State Senator and Speaker of the Vermont House of Representatives. Judge Powers' unqualified endorsement of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy will be a help to many who are run-down in health this spring, and who have not known where to turn for help. He says:

"I have found that Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy is a most valuable tonic, toning up the system and producing a condition of refreshment and buoyancy after long continued mental strain. I have heard it spoken of in terms of high appreciation by many reasonable witnesses, and fully concur in their opinion."

If you are ill and suffering; if you have sleepless nights; if your nerves are unstrung from any cause, Dr. Greene's Nervura will promptly build you up. Statesmen, professional people and common people join Judge Powers in praising this great medicine.

Dr. Greene's Special Advice is given free to all who call or write to his office, 35 W. 14th St., N. Y. City.

MEMBER OF CONGRESS H. HENRY POWERS, EX-JUDGE OF SUPREME COURT.

KENTUCKY THOROUGHBREDS

Dr. Wilson receives a pair of blooded drivers.

Dr. J. C. Wilson is the proud possessor of a pair of Kentucky Thoroughbreds which he has just had shipped from Indiana, where they have been during the winter. The steppers are tall brothers, Shinto and Christo, both by Elliston, and by Monte Larch, whose mother was Sord Tron by Gloster II and Denmark Maid. The pair are 3 and 5 years old respectively, and after resting up from their trip, which was a little rough on them, they will be ready to start. Lawrence Avenue and in the park. Dr. Wilson is a lover of the horse and his new team are something to be proud of. He does not intend to use them for racing, but to keep them for a pair of drivers.

Habitual constipation is the door through which many of the serious diseases of the body are admitted. The occasional use of Eucalypti Ash Bitters will remove and cure this distressing condition.

MARRIED FIFTY YEARS

Mr. and Mrs. Pittinger Celebrate Golden Wedding.

SURPRISED BY FRIENDS

Have Lived in Wichita Over Twenty-Five Years.

The celebration of the anniversary of fifty years of married life is a rare occasion, and but a small per cent of people are fortunate enough to reach this limit in wedded life.

Last evening was thus celebrated by Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Pittinger at their residence, No. 227 North Topeka Avenue. It was a highly enjoyable event, and more so from the fact that the friends of the venerable couple made it a surprise and without the least formality took possession of the house, and came laden with all manner of good things to eat, and spread a sumptuous feast which was served the company.

Mr. and Mrs. Pittinger were married in Spencer county, Ky., the 6th day of April, 1851, and came to Wichita in 1871 and have lived here in the same residence continuously since that date. They are known by all the old-time settlers, and no couple in the county are held in higher esteem and regard than they. This occasion demonstrated such friendship and affection that words fail to give proper expression to the warmth and compliments of the congratulations extended. Many further voiced their regard by tokens of remembrance in appropriate and valuable gifts, mementoes of the social ties sacred for years.

The company enjoyed relating reminiscences of the past, and songs were sung of "Auld Lang Syne" and the pathetic music of "Old Kentucky Home" moved each heart as sung by Mrs. Nighswonger, and executed on piano by Mrs. Furlong. A very appropriate and beautiful tribute was paid in a short address by Mrs. Fannie Hobbs, which elicited much applause and commendation from all. After the address Mrs. Hobbs presented in behalf of the Mission Circle a token of love—a beautifully engraved gold spoon.

The following were the guests present as far as could be ascertained: Mr. and Mrs. Martin Heller, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Frazier, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Sherman, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Furlong, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nighswonger, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Marsh, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Cox, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Coates, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lane, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Barnes, Mr. L. E. Webb, Mrs. C. H. Wareham, Mrs. S. T. Hawley, Mrs. M. E. Humphrey, Mrs. Varnie Newbury, Mrs. Mary Brady, Mrs. S. L. Gilbert, Mrs. C. F. Kerr, Mrs. R. C. Lee, Mrs. George Mann, Mrs. H. A. Bliss, Mrs. J. H. Wingard, Mrs. Fannie Hobbs, Misses Nan Gilbert, Ida Brander, Myrtle Lee, Nina Streeter, Marguerite Bliss, Pearl Worley, Beryl Williams, Margaret McCandless, Fode Stanley, Dr. H. Briscoe, Rev. Gibson, Dr. Smith, J. H. McCall, Capt. Burgess.

FRIENDS' RECEPTION.
The Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. of the Friends' university gave their semi-annual reception to the new students last evening at the university. The rooms and halls were beautifully decorated with hawthorn, ferns and cut flowers. Games and conversation were the principal amusement of the early part of the evening. The girls were taken to the library and were given the names of prominent works of fiction, poetry, history and juvenile books. The young men were expected to call for their favorite work and then talk for ten minutes about it. A very novel way for choosing leaders for the supper was given to the young ladies the names of the wives of prominent men and the young men the names of those men. Considerable amusement was created in hunting for their partners. After a bountiful repast was served the following toasts were given: "College Receptions," "Jax," "What is expected of the Y. W. C. A.," "Arthur Jones," "What is expected of the Y. M. C. A.," "Bertha Wentworth," "The new student," "Leona Longstrech," "My Noble host," "Edna Goodwin," "My fair hostess," "Herman Newman."

MRS. McLEAN ENTERTAINS.
Mrs. R. P. McLean entertained the friends of the West Side Free Kindergarten from 2 to 5 at her home on North Seneca street, Thursday. The spacious parlors were beautifully decorated with roses and carnations. Mrs. McLean was assisted by Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Annell, Mrs. Wm. Laughlin, Mrs. J. H. Eddy, Mrs. Mable by the Misses Charlotte, Bessie Smith and Miss Elsie and the discussion by Mrs. Carey and Mrs. Blunford on "Teaching a child obedience," served to pass the time until refreshments of wafers, salad, coffee and ice cream and cake were served in a most dainty manner by Misses Rich, Parkhurst and Farmer. About 100 guests were present and all report a most pleasant afternoon. The kindergarten is in connection with the teachers' training course of the Friends' university, being in charge of Miss Myra Albright.

PLEASANTLY SURPRISED.
Master Ross Harbort was given a delightful surprise Friday evening, when a number of his friends came to help him celebrate his birthday. The evening was spent in dancing, music and various games. Refreshments were served. At a late hour the guests departed wishing the young host many more happy birthdays. Those present were: Miss Elsie, Hazel North, Maude Kearns, Ruth Rogers, Blanche Isenhardt, Isie Harbort, May Ford, Golaw Wolitz, Anna McKee, Messrs. Fred Lynch, Charlie Mason, Earl Bailey, Leon Moorhead, Everett Frisley, Willie English and Rollie Richards.

HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.
The Woman's Home Missionary society of the First M. E. church met at the home of Mrs. G. G. Jacobs Wednesday afternoon. The report of the two sides, which have been contesting for months, was heard. The side led by Mrs. J. W. Kirkwood secured 15 new names, while that led by Mrs. H. B. Scott reported 13 new names. Ane losing side will give a banquet to those winning, the first Wednesday in May.

DAUGHTERS OF THE REVOLUTION.
The Daughters of the Revolution met with Mrs. W. A. Reed Thursday afternoon. The usual program was omitted and the time was spent in disposing of important business and election of officers. The officers elected were: Regent, Mrs. W. E. Stanley; vice regent, Mrs. W. A. Reed; corresponding secretary, Miss E. D. Dwyer; recording secretary, Miss E. Dwyer; Puller, regent, Mrs. H. M. Mortimer; historian, Mrs. S. S. Ashbaugh.

MISS SMYTH ENTERTAINS.
Miss Esther Smyth entertained some of her friends at her home, 629 North Lawrence Avenue, Friday evening. Misses Nina Bush and Ada Pratt assisted Miss Smyth in receiving. The porch, which surrounds the house was enclosed with canvas and lighted with Japanese lanterns. Couches were placed about the porch and posters of various kinds, hung on the walls, created much amusement. For those who did not care to dance games of different kinds were at their disposal in the spacious parlors. Lantern pictures were shown, a party, the entertainment. Mother Goose pictures were drawn by the guests, Hattie Kays and Ed Little winning the prizes. Little silk flags, numbered, were given to the guests which, on being matched, selected the partners for supper. Those present were: Mabel Smyth, Allen and Owen Hinman, Edna Goldstandt, Mary Cooper, Helen Brooks, Hattie Kays, Alberta Rees, Margie Grant, Lulu and Dixie Cordell, Sara Moreman, Florence Powers, Helen Dorsey, Ruth Leavelle, Helen Jackson, Gladys Mallow, and Messrs. Charles Smyth, Fred Goldstandt, Walter Cooper, Willard Brooks, Frank and Albert Oliver, Clay Slaus, Jamie Fullington, Wm. Holmes, Tom Churchward, Ed Little, Sidney Levi, Vester Cohn, Raymond Sietler, Edwin and Charles Aylesbury, Raymond Little, Finlay Ross, Earl Denny and Merritt Manning.

MASQUERADE PARTY.
A surprise masquerade party was given in honor of James Gaylord and Helen Myers at their home on North Wabash Friday evening. Colonial dances, flower girls, clowns, gypsies, Mexicans and Chinamen mingled together during the evening. Those present were: Marie Wales, Alice Roberts, Kate Richardson, Blanche Beards, Kate Montgomery, Dot Montgomery, Myrtle Harplate, Myrtle Shumaker, Frances Parsons, Kate Pitti-john, Florence, Minnie Shuman, Berneice Wayne, Daisy Rogers, Helen Myers, Mabel Pettijohn, Messrs. Karl Parks, Martin Wells, Frank Roberts, Clarence Blades, Jerry Fitzpatrick, Clyde Montgomery, Tim Parsons, Charles Myers, Lewis Walton, Will Walton, Roy Bailey, Claude Shuman, Rex Purdie, Leroy Leonard, John Bailey, Raymond Lawrence and others.

RITIDAY SURPRISE.
Marie Stanley celebrated her fifth birthday Saturday afternoon. The afternoon was spent at various games and delicious refreshments were served. Each guest was presented with her photograph. Those present were: Mabel Hamilton, Lora Portley, Ester McComb, Hazel McComb, Mabel Roff, Corrie and Emma Stanley, Dorothy Blazer, Sadie Hillis, Herbert Tichman, Harry Lloyd and Frank Stanley.

ALMA CIRCLE.
The Alma Chautauque circle meets next Tuesday afternoon, April 9, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Bone, 609 North Main street. The program is as follows: Grocien History, Chapter IX (concluded)—Dr. J. G. Dorsey; Grocien Theatrics, Chapter X—Mr. J. E. Conklin; Music—Miss Edna Bone; Paper—Woman's College in the Orient—Mrs. E. V. Critchfield; Human Nature Club, Chapters VI, VII, VIII—Mrs. O. G. Beketian; Roll Call—Progressive Story, Started by the leader, Mrs. O. J. Taylor will lead.

TEWENTH CENTURY CLUB.
As this is the last month of the club year in the Twentieth Century club, the ladies have arranged some special programs in the several departments. On Tuesday, April 16, Judge S. S. Ashbaugh was delivered a lecture entitled, "Some Facts About Shakespeare." Judge Ashbaugh has long been a student of the "universal genius" and is always an interesting speaker. The club women feel themselves very fortunate to secure this lecture as a close to the work of the literary department. Miss Mabel Larimer will sing "It was a Lover and His Love," from "As You Like It," and "O, Mistress Mary Where are You Roaming?" from "Twelfth Night." Miss Childs and Mrs. Smyth will sing, "I Know a Bank," from "Midsummer Night's Dream." The ladies of the club are invited to this meeting and especially are the club women of all the clubs urged to come.

THE PACK OF QUEENS.
Miss Geneva Jocelyn entertained the Pack of Queens at her home on North Topeka. Most of the afternoon was devoted to discussing and making arrangements for the masquerade ball which is to be given by them soon in Sedgewick Music hall. About half past four the young ladies commenced playing cards. The scores were fairly egg shells, on hearts, and for each point won, a bonbon was dropped into the shell. Miss Laura Pearce and Miss Daisy Woods winning the prizes. Miss Rose Walenstein won the booby, which she feels quite fortunate in getting, as it was a pretty deck of Fauntleroy cards. An elaborate luncheon was served in the dining room. Afterwards the club presented Mrs. Paul Eaton with a beautiful hand painted creamer and sugar bowl. The guests of the club were Mrs. McGurgen, Miss Potts, Miss Pearce, Mrs. Slagov, Mrs. Moffat will entertain the club at its next meeting.

PHYSICAL CULTURE CLASS.
The girls' physical culture class of Lewis academy is making elaborate preparations for an exhibition to be given at the Teller Auditorium Wednesday, April 10. The program was set by the girls and certainly it cannot fail to please the public who have been looking forward to this entertainment with much enthusiasm: (a) "Hence, Now Away"..... T. S. Dale (b) Gypsy Chorus..... Bohemian Girl Academy Chorus Club Singing..... Miss Hall Ward..... Miss Hall Duet—"The Trovatore"..... Verdi Misses Lohrke and Maybelle Hall. Fancy Polish Drill. Piano solo..... Selected Bonnie Ferlick. Dramatic Drill..... Miss Hall Arm Movements..... Miss Hall Fancy Spanish Drill. String Music..... Slicker Conservatory Orchestra Hoop Drill. Leaf Fanatics.

The fancy drills are for the most part entirely new here. They are especially adapted to display the grace and ease of body which are the result of physical culture. The fancy dance drill particularly shows this in the slow, graceful movements of the body and the perfect control of poise and in the fancy marching. The dumb-bell drill with the small chorus forms one of the most pleasing numbers of the program, with its rhythmic movements and precision of the steps in unison. The Spanish drill is given in the picturesque Spanish costume and shows a diversity of fancy steps and movements. The Scarf Fanatics are a number of fancy figures and artistic groupings further enhanced by colorful light effects. The sale of tickets has been going on for some time and a large attendance is already assured.

ARTISTIC WINDOW DISPLAY

J. L. Francis & Co. Use Their New Show Windows to Good Advantage.

One of the most artistic and attractive window displays in the city is at J. L. Francis & Co's Paint and Wall Paper store, 122 East Douglas Avenue. The background is made of the latest designs and beautiful patterns in Wall Paper, artistically draped in the fashion of Green goods in dry good stores. In the foreground is displayed Paints, Japanneds and various window displays.

J. L. Francis & Co. started in business about a year ago with a small stock, and have continued to increase and enlarge their stock to keep pace with their increasing trade, which is now immense, and they report it growing rapidly. Last week they received a car load of "Stencils" Ready Mixed Paints, and also a car load of Earth Paints. They have a large stock of Lead, Zinc, Paints, Glues, Varnishes, Wall Paper, and much more. A very large spring and summer trade, the rush having already begun. Having already received over one car load of Wall Paper this spring and in order to keep the latest up-to-date styles and patterns, they receive new shipments every few days. It is an up-to-date store and their window indicates it. It is worth your while to stop and look at it.

Miss Daisy Lynch is expecting Miss Fiebert of Prescott, Ariz., to visit her soon.

Dear Sirs—Some days snow a package of your GRAIN-O preparation was left at my office. I took it home and gave it a trial, and I have to say I was very much pleased with it, as a substitute for coffee. We have always used the best Java and Mocha in our family, but I am free to say I like the GRAIN-O as well as the best coffee I ever drank. Respectfully yours, A. C. JACKSON, M. D.

Simple Directions for the Preparation of Grape-Fruit for Eating.

Cut with a sharp knife crosswise, remove all seeds (if any), then sprinkle with granulated sugar and allow it to stand over night. Serve in ordinary sauce dish, using a strong fruit spoon having a sharp point. The seedless part can then be removed from such sections and eaten without difficulty. Some use a small quantity of port wine in the preparation of the fruit.

This fruit will be found to be a delicious breakfast appetizer, and is highly recommended by physicians as a tonic, it having a considerable percentage of albumin. We supply Grape Fruit to the trade.
